

Chapter 5.4

Documentation

- Note 1 The provisions of this Code do not preclude the use of electronic data processing (EDP) and electronic data interchange (EDI) transmission techniques as an alternative to paper documentation. All references to “dangerous goods transport document” in this chapter also include provision of the required information by use of EDP and EDI transmission techniques.
- Note 2 When dangerous goods are offered for transport, similar documents to those required for other categories of goods have to be prepared. The form of these documents, the particulars to be entered on them and the obligations they entail may be fixed by international conventions applying to certain modes of transport and by national legislation.
- Note 3 One of the primary requirements of a transport document for dangerous goods is to convey the fundamental information relative to the hazards of the goods. It is, therefore, necessary to include certain basic information on the document for a consignment of dangerous goods unless otherwise exempted or required in this Code.
- Note 4 In addition to the provisions of this chapter, other elements of information may be required by the competent authority.
- Note 5 In addition to the provisions of this chapter other additional information may be included. However, this information shall not:
- .1 divert attention from the safety information required by this chapter or by the competent authority;
 - .2 contradict the safety information required by this chapter or by the competent authority; or
 - .3 duplicate information already provided.

5.4.1 Dangerous goods transport information

5.4.1.1 General

- 5.4.1.1.1 Except as otherwise provided, the consignor who offers dangerous goods for transport shall give to the carrier the information applicable to those dangerous goods, including any additional information and documentation as specified in this Code. This information may be provided on a dangerous goods transport document or, with the agreement of the carrier, by EDP or EDI techniques.
- 5.4.1.1.2 When the dangerous goods transport information is given to the carrier by EDP or EDI techniques, the consignor shall be able to produce the information without delay as a paper document, with the information in the sequence required by this chapter.

5.4.1.2 Form of the transport document

- 5.4.1.2.1 A dangerous goods transport document may be in any form, provided it contains all of the information required by the provisions of this Code.
- 5.4.1.2.2 If both dangerous and non-dangerous goods are listed in one document, the dangerous goods shall be listed first, or otherwise be emphasized.
- 5.4.1.2.3 Continuation page
- A dangerous goods transport document may consist of more than one page, provided pages are consecutively numbered.
- 5.4.1.2.4 The information on a dangerous goods transport document shall be easy to identify, legible and durable.
